

PROCTORIAL NOTICE

ACADEMICAL DRESS

Members of the University are reminded of the Regulations for Academical Dress¹, of which Regulations 1 to 4 are as follows:

1. Members of the University in statu pupillari shall be required to wear the academical dress appropriate to their status in this University when attending University ceremonies in the University Church or the Senate-House, and at all other times at which the Vice-Chancellor may by public notice direct that academical dress be worn.
2. Members of the University not in statu pupillari shall wear the academical dress appropriate to their respective degrees of this University in the University Church, the Senate-House, and the Schools, and generally on public occasions and at official meetings, and on all other occasions on which the Vice-Chancellor may by public notice direct that academical dress be worn.
3. The Doctors in the several Faculties shall wear their festal gowns in public on Christmas Day, Easter Day, Ascension Day, Whitsunday, Trinity Sunday, All Saints' Day, on the day appointed for the Commemoration of Benefactors, on the days of General Admission to Degrees, and on all other occasions on which the Vice-Chancellor may by public notice request that festal gowns be worn.
4. Notwithstanding the foregoing regulations, on the occasions specified in Regulation 3 any member of the University who holds a degree of another university or degree-awarding institution may wear the academical dress appropriate to that degree; save that this provision shall not apply to the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the High Steward, the Deputy High Steward, the Commissary, the Proctors, the Registrary, or the Esquire Bedells, or to a deputy for any of those officers, or to any person presenting or being presented for a degree of the University.
