

Lectures Proposed by the Library Syndicate

MICHAELMAS 2007

LENT 2008

EASTER 2008

The University Library offers a user education programme open to all its readers. This includes sessions on the basic use of the Library, as well as seminars on subject specific resources and on making best use of, electronic resources and datasets.

Full details are available on the Library's website at <http://www.lib.cam.ac.uk/Courses/> and on posters in the Library and distributed throughout the University.

Enquiries about the programme may be addressed to the Reference Department of the University Library (tel. 01223 333016/333066, e-mail: user-education@lib.cam.ac.uk).

Sanders Lectures

PROF. P. KORNIKI

Having difficulty with Chinese? – the rise of the vernacular book in Japan, Korea and Vietnam Morison Room, University Library.

The Latin of East Asia. M. 5 (10 Mar.)

Bluffing your way in Chinese. Tu. 5 (11 Mar.)

Little Chinese, less Manchu. Th. 5 (13 Mar.)