Amending Statute for Peterhouse

28 March 2016

The Vice-Chancellor begs leave to refer to his Notice of 2 March 2016 (Reporter, 6417, 2015–16, p. 409), concerning a proposed amending Statute for Peterhouse. He hereby gives notice that in the opinion of the Council the proposed Statute makes no alteration of any Statute which affects the University, and does not require the consent of the University; that the interests of the University are not prejudiced by it, and that the Council has resolved to take no action upon it, provided that the Council will wish to reconsider the proposed Statute if it has not been submitted to the Privy Council by 30 March 2017.

Amending Statutes for Queens' College

6 April 2016

The Vice-Chancellor gives notice that he has received from the Governing Body of Queens' College, in accordance with the provisions of Section 7(2) of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act 1923, the text of proposed Statutes to amend the Statutes of the College. Details of the proposed amendments are available on the College's website: http://www.queens.cam.ac.uk/files/downloads/statutes_-_proposed_amendments_2016.pdf.

Paper copies of the current Statutes of the College and the proposed amendments may be inspected at the University Offices until 10 a.m. on 29 April 2016.

Sir Robert Rede's Lecture 2016: Change of date

6 April 2016

The Vice-Chancellor gives notice that the 2016 Lecture by The Rt Hon. Lord Adonis announced in an earlier Notice as for Wednesday, 20 April 2016 at 5.30 p.m. is postponed and will now be given next Michaelmas Term on a date to be published later.

North West Cambridge development

11 April 2016

The Council wishes to report to the Regent House that, at its meeting on 14 March 2016, it:

- (a) approved the recommendations of the second report of the North West Cambridge Audit Group. A copy of the second report can be accessed by current raven account holders at: <http://www.admin.cam.ac.uk/cam-only/reporter/2015-16/weekly/6421/NWCDAG-SecondReport-2016.pdf>;
- (b) approved an increase in the borrowing limit for Phase 1 of the North West Cambridge development from £320m to £396m. This approval was given by the Council in the light of advice from its Finance Committee, which had considered and adopted a re-baselined financial appraisal, as required by the first report of the North West Cambridge Audit Group (see Reporter, 6400, 2015–16, p. 53);
- (c) approved, on the recommendation of its Finance Committee, the release of the Chest loan of up to £4m, as previously approved but suspended at its meeting on 13 July 2015, to enable an options appraisal and subsequently (if the Council so authorizes) a business case for Phase 2 of the project to be prepared. If the Council decides to recommend that a second phase is taken forward, it will publish a Report, for consideration at a Discussion and approval by Grace.

Faculty of Law building: Naming approved

11 April 2016

The Council has approved the naming of the Faculty of Law building on the Sidgwick site as the David Williams Building, in honour of Professor Sir David Williams QC, M.A., LL.B., LL.D.(Hon), the first full-time holder of the office of Vice-Chancellor, 1989–96, Emeritus Rouse Ball Professor of English Law and Emeritus Professor of Law (1996), President of Wolfson College, 1980–92, Life Fellow and Honorary Fellow of Emmanuel College, and Honorary Fellow of Pembroke and Wolfson Colleges, who died in 2009.

Examinations, 2016

11 April 2016

Because of the potential risk of industrial action that might result in a delay in the publication of lists of candidates who have satisfied the Examiners in particular examinations, the Council is submitting Graces to the Regent House to limit the extent of any such delay and to deal with associated matters (Graces 1–3, p. 455). The Council hopes that it will not be necessary to use the emergency powers conferred by these Graces, but it thinks it a reasonable precaution to ensure that such powers are available. Similar Graces have been approved in the past when it was thought that University officers and other Examiners and Assessors might follow a policy of non-cooperation over examinations.

REGULATIONS FOR EXAMINATIONS

Asian and Middle Eastern Studies Tripos, Part II

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 270)

With effect from 1 October 2016

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies, has approved amendments to the regulations governing Part II of the Tripos, so as to remove Paper C.13, Literary Chinese 3, as a paper for the examination in Part II until further notice. The paper will continue to be offered as an optional paper under the provisions of Regulation 8.

PART II

Regulation 21.

C.13 Literary Chinese 3

By removing the paper from the list of papers for the examination in Part II.

Regulation 22.

By amending the regulation for subjects in Chinese; and in Chinese with Japanese so as to read:

(a) Chinese

Candidates shall offer:

- (i) Papers C.11–12;
- (ii) two papers chosen from the papers announced by the Faculty Board under Regulation 8, provided that only papers prefixed with C may be chosen;
- (iii) a dissertation, under conditions set out in Regulation 23.

Candidates shall also offer an oral examination, under conditions set out by the Faculty Board from time to time.

(b) Chinese with Japanese

Candidates shall offer:

- (i) Papers J.4–5 from Part Ib of the Tripos;
- (ii) Paper C.12;
- (iii) either Paper C.11 or Paper C.13, when it has been announced by the Faculty Board under the provisions of Regulation 8;
- (iv) two further papers chosen from the papers announced by the Faculty Board under Regulation 8, provided that only papers prefixed with C may be chosen.

Candidates shall also offer a Japanese oral examination, under conditions set out by the Faculty Board from time to time.

This option may only be taken with the permission of the Faculty Board, such permission to be granted no later than the division of the Lent Term of the year next preceding the examination.

The Faculty Board of Asian and Middle Eastern Studies is satisfied that no candidate's preparation for the examination will be affected.

Medical and Veterinary Sciences Tripos, Part IA

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 358)

With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board of Biology, has approved an amendment to Regulation 15(c)(ii), to change the length of the practical examination (Section II) in Functional Architecture of the Body (FAB) from one and a half hours to seventy-five minutes. This change reflects the current form and conduct of the examination and changes previously approved to the length of the examination. No student shall be disadvantaged by these changes, as the form and conduct of the examination was changed for the 2015 examinations.

Theological and Religious Studies Tripos, Part I: Amendment

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 399)

With effect from 1 October 2016

Further to the Notice published on 24 February 2016 (Reporter, 6416, 2015–16, p. 400) the list of papers available in Part I has been amended so as to introduce a revised title for Paper A5.

The Faculty Board of Divinity is satisfied that no candidate's preparation for the examination in 2017 will be affected.

Master of Law

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 441)

With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board for the Faculty of Law, has approved an amendment to the regulations so as to enable full responsibility for the LL.M. Degree to lie with the Faculty Board, by bringing the approval of candidates and prescribing the course of study for candidates within the purview of the Faculty Board instead of the Degree Committee for the Faculty of Law.

By amending Regulations 5(a) and 5(b) so as to read:

- (a) must be approved by the Faculty Board, who shall assign to each candidate a date of commencement of candidatures;
- and
- (b) shall pursue in the University a course of study prescribed by the Faculty Board, which shall extend over three terms;

By amending Regulation 6 so as to read:

6. The Faculty Board may approve as a candidate for the LL.M. Examination any student who has satisfied the Board that by reason of previous study of law he or she is qualified to engage in postgraduate study of law at an advanced level.

In giving approval the Board may require a student

- (a) to obtain such class or grade as they may think fit in any examination taken or to be taken by the student;
- (b) to be a candidate for the LL.M. Examination in a particular year specified by the Faculty Board.

Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (Curriculum Regulations), Second M.B. Examination

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 445)

With immediate effect

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Faculty Boards of Biology and Clinical Medicine, has approved amendments to Regulations 9(a), 9(g), and 9(h). The revisions are to make previously approved changes to the length of examinations for Functional Architecture of the Body (FAB) and Head and Neck Anatomy (HNA), and to reflect the current form and conduct of the examination. The examination in FAB will be removed from Regulation 9(a); Section II of the examination in FAB will be reduced from one and a half hours to seventy-five minutes in Regulation 9(h); the examination in HND will be reduced from one hour to forty-five minutes in Regulation 9(g). No student shall be disadvantaged by these changes, as the form and conduct of the examination was changed for the 2015 examinations.

By amending paragraphs (a), (g), and (h) of Regulation 9 so as to read:

- (a) The examinations in BOD, HOM, MIMS, and MODA shall each consist of a written paper of one hour, which shall contain compulsory short-answer questions (Section I), and a practical examination of two hours (Section II).
- (g) The examination in HNA shall consist of a practical paper of forty-five minutes consisting of two sections (Section I and Section II).
- (h) The examination in FAB shall consist of a written paper of forty-five minutes, which shall contain compulsory short-answer questions (Section I), and a practical examination of seventy-five minutes (Section II).

Examination in Environmental Policy for the M.Phil. Degree

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 492)

With effect from 1 October 2017

The General Board, on the recommendation of the Degree Committee for the Department of Land Economy, has approved an amendment to the regulations to allow for greater focus on core modules and to introduce a greater degree of progression in the subjects.

By deleting Regulations 3 and 4 and amending Regulations 1 and 2 so as to read:

1. The Degree Committee for the Department of Land Economy shall publish, not later than the end of the Easter Term each year, a list of modules for the examination to be held in the academical year next following. The list shall include a research methods module, two core modules, and no fewer than four optional modules (the Degree Committee may specify that a candidate shall offer one or more specific modules). In publishing the list the Degree Committee shall announce whether each module is to be examined by a written paper, by an essay or project, or by a combination of these; they shall specify the limits to be placed on the length of any essays or projects.

2. Each candidate shall offer:

- (a) the research methods module;
- (b) two core modules;
- (c) three optional modules;
- (d) the research, design, and structure module, which shall include a thesis of not more than 12,000 words in length, including diagrams, footnotes, tables, and appendices, but excluding bibliography, on a topic approved by the Degree Committee.
