

(d) if in the Advocate's opinion a complaint of grave misconduct is not of sufficiently direct concern to the University to justify its being brought before the University Tribunal.

No proceedings shall be initiated before any of the University disciplinary panels established by Statute D or any Special Ordinance under Statute D, other than proceedings under the provisions of the Schedule to Statute C,¹ unless the Advocate has so determined in accordance with this section and with any Ordinance made under Statute D.

The Advocate shall have the power to refer any student about whom a complaint is made under this regulation to the Fitness to Study Panel under the University's procedure to determine fitness to study and may defer any determination under this regulation pending the Panel's consideration of the student's fitness to study.
