IN THE LANGUAGE CENTRE YOU CAN:

- Study any of 120 languages available from beginners' to advanced level. New acquisitions are listed regularly on the web.
- View direct broadcasts by satellite currently available daily in Arabic, Dutch, French, German, Greek, Indic languages, Italian, Japanese, Persian/Iranian, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Scandinavian languages and Turkish. Recordings of satellite programmes are made every night.
- Watch films in foreign languages, many with sub-titles. See also some reference material on films (e.g. Cannes CD-ROM). There is also a comprehensive collection of literary and cultural programmes on audio and video tapes.
- Use the multimedia workstations for language learning programmes, CD-ROM material (dictionaries and literature databases), digital television, and other on line resources, plus links to external language resources including newspapers and courses abroad.
- Consult an adviser to discuss your learning needs and plan your individual programme. An adviser is available during full term in the Independent Learning Centre at times to be announced.
- Enter into conversation exchange with a speaker of the language you are learning.
- Join language courses for academic purposes which are run during term time and in the summer vacation in German, Russian, Japanese and French.
- Find information about language courses abroad, details of language bursaries and scholarships, international summer schools and summer jobs abroad, consult reference books and directories. Some of this information is available via the Centre's home-page.
