IN THE LANGUAGE CENTRE YOU CAN:

- Join the Cambridge University Language Programme (CULP) in French, German and Spanish at Basic or Intermediate levels, and Italian at Basic level, in the Michaelmas and Lent Terms. A participative fee of £35 is charged to students for the course and the full fee of £125 to staff members.
- Join the Pressland Fund language courses in Russian at either Introductory or Intermediate level and Italian at Intermediate level in the Michaelmas and Lent terms.
- Receive help with your Academic English by joining our EAP in-session course for a fee.
- Study any of the 140+ languages available from basic to advanced level. New acquisitions are listed regularly on the web.
- Make an appointment to discuss your learning needs and plan your individual programme with a member of the advising team.
- Enter into a conversation exchange with a speaker of the language you are learning.
- Use the multimedia workstations to access language learning programmes, consisting of CD-ROM material (dictionaries and literature databases), digital television, and other online resources, plus links to external language resources including newspapers and courses abroad.
- View satellite television currently available daily in 12 languages. Recordings of satellite programmes are made every night.
- Watch films in foreign languages, many with subtitles. See also some reference material on film. There is also a comprehensive collection of literary and cultural programmes on audio and video tapes.
- Find information about language courses abroad, details of language bursaries and scholarships, international summer schools and summer jobs abroad, consult reference books and directories. Some of this information is available via the Centre's home-page.
