Congregation of the Regent House on Wednesday, 21 March 2012: Notice

6 February 2012

Further to his Notice of 9 January (Reporter, 2011–12, p. 359) and in accordance with Statute A, VIII, 2, the Vice-Chancellor informs members of the University that an additional Congregation will take place on Wednesday, 21 March 2012 at 11 a.m. This Congregation will be for the Installation of the Chancellor, The Lord Sainsbury of Turville, M.A., LL.D.(Hon.), Hon. FRS, Hon. FEng, Hon. FMedSci, Honorary Fellow of King's College. Music will be performed in honour of the Chancellor.

TIMETABLE

Ticket-holders who are not processing will need to be in their places in the Senate-House not later than 10.45 a.m. If the weather is dry, the first of two processions listed below will form in the Schools Arcade at 10.40 a.m. Those in the categories listed beneath who wish to take part in the first procession must give notice of their intention, and processional tickets will be issued to them up to the number of places available. If the weather is wet, the first procession will not take place and those in this procession will be requested to take their seats in the Senate-House upon arrival. The second procession will form shortly before 11 a.m. The Congregation will end by about 11.40 a.m.

RECEPTION

There will be a Reception after the Congregation for all those attending. It will be held under cover in Senate-House Yard and refreshments will be served.

DRESS

All members of the University attending the Congregation are required to wear academical dress in accordance with the relevant regulations. Other persons attending do not wear academical dress. Wednesday, 21 March 2012 will be a scarlet day, and Doctors in the several Faculties are requested to wear their festal gowns. Hoods are worn at this Congregation. In accordance with Regulation 4 for academical dress (Statutes and Ordinances, p. 187), any member of the University (other than the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, High Steward, Deputy High Steward, Commissary, Proctors, Registrary, or Esquire Bedells) who is a graduate of another university or degree-awarding institution, may, on this occasion, wear the academical dress appropriate to that degree.

ADMISSION TO THE CONGREGATION

Admission to the Senate-House and Yard will be by ticket only and entry to the Yard on this occasion will be by the South-East Gate, from King's Parade.

TICKETS

All members and all staff (including retired staff) of both the University and the Colleges are invited to apply for tickets. In order to encourage wider participation from within the University, applications for guest tickets will not be accepted.

Applications for tickets, which must be made by letter or by email, and must give the postal address of the applicant and their University or College affiliation, should be sent to Installation of The Chancellor, The Vice-Chancellor's Office, The Old Schools, Trinity Lane, Cambridge, CB2 1TN, or by email (Chancellor.Installation@admin.cam.ac.uk) to arrive not later than Wednesday, 29 February 2012. Applications cannot be made in person or by telephone.

Applicants will understand that there may be more applications than places that are available. In that case a ballot will be used to allocate tickets and all applications received by the closing date will be included in the ballot. Unsuccessful applications will not be acknowledged and tickets will be sent out to successful applicants in the week beginning Monday, 5 March 2012.

Successful applicants who then find that they cannot use their tickets are asked to return them so that their seats may be offered to others. Tickets are not transferable.

Further details of the arrangements will be included with the tickets.

Those in the classes specified below, who wish to take part in the procession, are asked to state this clearly in their applications. Processional tickets will be issued up to the number of places available to seat the procession. Only the holders of Cambridge Professorial Chairs or Cambridge Higher Doctorates are eligible to process as Professors or Doctors.

ORDER OF PROCESSION

With the assent of the Proctors, the Vice-Chancellor has prescribed the following special orders of procession before and after this Congregation.

Those listed below (who have tickets to admit them to the procession, as specified above) assemble in the Schools Arcade not later than 10.40 a.m. (entering by the South-East Gate from King's Parade).

The Vice-Marshal
 Heads of Colleges
 The Regius Professor of Divinity
 The Regius Professor of Civil Law
 The Regius Professor of Physic
 The Regius Professor of Hebrew

 Professors who are Doctors
 Doctors of Divinity
 Doctors of Law
 Doctors of Medicine
 Doctors of Science and Doctors of Letters
 The Librarian
 Professors who are not Doctors and the Director of the Fitzwilliam Museum
 Members of the Council
 The Pro-Proctors

A second procession will then form as follows, and will proceed immediately after the first:

The Esquire Bedells
 The Vice-Chancellor The Chancellor
 The University Marshal
 The Orator The Registry
 The Proctors
 (University Constables)
 The High Steward
 The Deputy High Steward
 The Commissary
 The Pro-Vice-Chancellors

REGULATIONS FOR EXAMINATIONS

The General Board give notice that, on the recommendation of the Faculty Board or other authority concerned, the regulations for certain University examinations have been amended as follows:

Classical Tripos, Part IAWith immediate effect

The Supplementary Regulations for Papers 5 and 6 in Part IA have been amended so as to reflect the fact that candidates will now be given the opportunity to show their understanding of scansion when answering questions on one of the verse passages in both Greek and Latin in Paper 5. The scansion exercise will no longer form part of the examination in Paper 6.

SUPPLEMENTARY REGULATIONS

(Statutes and Ordinances, p. 292)

PART IA

Paper 5. Greek and Latin texts

By removing the current Supplementary Regulation and replacing it with revised text so as to read:

This paper will contain questions on works contained in the schedules of Greek and Latin texts prescribed for Papers 1 to 4. The paper will contain questions on a number of passages which may be in prose or verse. The first five questions on each passage will be focused on detailed understanding of the language and the final question will ask for an extended analysis and appreciation. One of the verse passages in both Greek and Latin will give candidates the opportunity to show their understanding of scansion when answering questions.

Paper 6. Classical questions

By removing the final sentence of the Supplementary Regulation and replacing it with revised text so as to read:

Candidates will be required to answer four questions.

NOTICES BY FACULTY BOARDS, ETC.Natural Sciences Tripos, Part II (Biological and Biomedical Sciences), 2012–13:*Notice

The Faculty Board of Biology give notice, in accordance with Regulation 30 for the Natural Sciences Tripos, that the following combinations of Major and Minor Subjects will be offered in the Natural Sciences Tripos, Part II (Biological and Biomedical Sciences) in 2012–13.

Subject to any restrictions announced in a particular year by the Faculty Board under the provisions of Regulation 30, candidates are required to offer in the examination for Part II Biological and Biomedical Sciences of the Natural Sciences Tripos:

- (a) the examination requirements of one Major Subject;
- (b) the examination requirements of one Minor Subject;
- (c) a dissertation of not more than 6,000 words, excluding tables, figures, and references.

All subjects make provision for candidates to offer a dissertation.

The subjects available and permissible combinations are listed below. If there is a limit on the number of candidates that can be accepted for a subject, this is indicated.

FORM AND CONDUCT OF EXAMINATIONS, 2011–12

Notices by Faculty Boards, or other bodies concerned, of changes to the form and conduct of certain examinations to be held in 2011–12, by comparison with those examinations in 2010, are published below. Complete details of the form and conduct of all examinations are available from the Faculties or Departments concerned.

Classical Tripos, Part IA

The Faculty Board of Classics give notice that, with effect from the examinations to be held in 2012, the form of the examination for the following papers for Part IA of the Classical Tripos has changed.

Section A

Paper 5. Greek and Latin texts (also serves as Paper GL 5 of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos)

This paper will contain questions on works contained in the schedules of Greek and Latin texts prescribed for Papers 1 to 4. The paper will contain questions on six passages. The first three passages will be passages of Greek prose and verse, two of which will come from the texts prescribed for Section (a) of Paper 2. The latter three passages will be passages of Latin prose and verse, two of which will come from texts prescribed for Section (a) of Paper 4. The first five questions on each passage will be focused on detailed understanding of the language and the final question will ask for an extended analysis and appreciation. Candidates will be required to answer questions on two passages, one Greek and one Latin. One of the verse passages in both Greek and Latin will give candidates the opportunity to show their understanding of scansion when answering questions.

Paper 6. Classical questions (also serves as Paper GL 6 of the Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos)

This paper will be divided into five sections:

- (a) Greek and Latin literature;
- (b) Greek and Roman philosophy;
- (c) Greek and Roman history from c. 800 BC to AD 337;
- (d) Greek and Roman art and archaeology;
- (e) Classical philology and linguistics.

Candidates will be required to answer four questions, one from Section (a); two from Sections (b) to (e), with no more than one question being taken from any one section; and one from any section of the candidate's choice. Questions in Section (a) will no longer include passages for scansion and metrical commentary.

All other papers remain unchanged.

Modern and Medieval Languages Tripos, Part IA

Further to their Notice published on 23 November 2011 (Reporter, 2011–12, p. 207), the Faculty Board of Modern and Medieval Languages give notice that, with effect from the examinations to be held in 2012, the form of the examination for the following papers for Part IA of the Modern and Medieval Tripos has changed.

Schedule C

Paper GL 5. Greek or Latin texts (a modified version of Paper 5 of Part IA of the Classical Tripos)

This paper will contain questions on works contained in the schedules of Greek and Latin texts prescribed for Papers GL1 to GL3, and Paper 4 of the Classical Tripos. The paper will contain questions on eight passages. The first four passages will be passages of Greek prose and verse, two of which will come from the texts prescribed for Section (a) of Paper GL2. The latter four passages will be passages of Latin prose and verse, two of which will come from texts prescribed for Section (a) of Paper 4 of the Classical Tripos. The first five questions on each passage will be focused on detailed understanding of the language and the final question will ask for an extended analysis and appreciation. Candidates will be required to answer questions on two passages which must both be in the same language. Candidates will be given the opportunity to show their understanding of scansion when answering questions on one of the verse passages in both Greek and Latin.

Paper GL 6. Classical questions (a modified version of Paper 6 of Part IA of the Classical Tripos)

This paper will be divided into five sections:

- (a) Greek and Latin literature;
- (b) Greek and Roman philosophy;
- (c) Greek and Roman history from c. 800 BC to AD 337;
- (d) Greek and Roman art and archaeology;
- (e) Classical philology and linguistics.

Candidates will be required to answer four questions. Questions in Section (a) will no longer include passages for scansion and metrical commentary.

Bachelor of Theology for Ministry

Further to their Notice of 23 November 2011 (Reporter, 2011–12, p. 209), the Faculty Board of Divinity give notice that with effect from the examinations to be held in 2012, the form of the examination for the following paper for the Bachelor of Theology for Ministry will be changed as follows:

GROUP A

Paper 6. Introduction to the New Testament

The structure of the examination paper has been amended. The number of sections set after Question 1 within the paper has been reduced from three to two.

Topics currently set under Sections A (The Gospels) and C (The historical Jesus and the historical context of the early church) will be amalgamated into a new section A (Jesus and the Gospels). Topics set under Section B (The Epistles) will remain unchanged.

Candidates will be required to attempt Question 1 and a further three questions – two from Section A and one from Section B. Question 1 will require comment on two out of five prescribed texts. Section A will contain at least eight questions on Jesus and the Gospels; Section B will contain at least five questions on the Epistles.

The Faculty Board of Divinity have confirmed that no candidate's preparation for the examination in 2012 will be affected by this change.

All other papers remain unchanged.
