GRACES

Graces submitted to the Regent House on 21 October 2020

The Council submits the following Graces to the Regent House. These Graces, unless they are withdrawn or a ballot is requested in accordance with the regulations for Graces of the Regent House (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 105) will be deemed to have been approved at 4 p.m. on Friday, 30 October 2020. Further information on requests for a ballot or the amendment of Graces is available to members of the Regent House on the Regent House Petitions site.[§]

1. That, with effect from 23 October 2020, the first sentence of Regulation 7 of the Ordinance on Supplicats (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 174) be amended to read as follows:¹

By 4 p.m. on the day before the date appointed for each Congregation at which any degree is to be conferred (other than a degree for whose conferment a Grace has been approved by, or will at that Congregation be submitted to, the Regent House) the Registry shall cause to be posted on the University website^[1] (or if that is not possible, in the Schools Arcade) a list of names of persons whose Supplicats have been received and who are certified by the Registry to have done all that is required of them by the Statutes and Ordinances and to be qualified to proceed on that day to the degrees for which they have applied.

^[1] <https://www.student-registry.admin.cam.ac.uk/graduation/supplikat-lists-degree-ceremonies>

2. That the El-Erian Professorship of Behavioural Economics and Policy (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 761) be assigned to the Department of Politics and International Studies.²

² The Professorship was originally established as the El-Erian Professorship of Economics by Grace 2 of 2 December 2015 and assigned to the Faculty of Economics. It was retitled by Grace 8 of 24 July 2019. The Council is proposing the reassignment of the Professorship to the Department most relevant to its field.

§ See <https://www.governance.cam.ac.uk/governance/key-bodies/RH-Senate/Pages/RH-Petitions.aspx> for details.

3. That the regulations for the Leslie Stephen Lecture (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 997) notwithstanding, the Lecturer elected in Michaelmas Term 2018 be permitted to lecture out of the time specified in Regulation 3, but for the purposes of Regulation 6, it be deemed as delivered in the year 2020–21. Furthermore, that Regulation 2 notwithstanding, the Electors shall have discretion to delay making an election in Michaelmas Term 2020 and to elect later, or to make no further election until that required in 2022.³

4. That the regulations for Sermons and Commemorations (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 185) and for the Lady Margaret's Preachership (Statutes and Ordinances, 2019, p. 915) notwithstanding, the Vice-Chancellor be permitted, if necessary, to appoint an alternate to the Preacher appointed in the Lent Term of 2020, and to authorise the delivery of the Sermon and the holding of the Commemoration of Benefactors for the year 2020–21 on a day other than the first Sunday in November.⁴

³ The next Lecture, by Professor Kwame Anthony Appiah, CL, is due to be given on 12 November 2020, but with the agreement of the Lecturer and the Electors and owing to the current COVID-19 pandemic, authority is now sought for a delay. The other temporary changes relate to future payment of the stipend and the requirement to elect again before the end of the current Term.

REPORT OF DISCUSSION

Tuesday, 13 October 2020

A Discussion was held by videoconference. Deputy Vice-Chancellor Professor Nicola Padfield was presiding, with the Registrar's deputy, the Senior Proctor, the Junior Proctor and five other persons present.

The following Report was discussed:

First-stage Report of the Council, dated 29 July 2020, on a University of Cambridge Solar Farm at Lord's Bridge
(Reporter, 6587, 2019–20, p. 551).

Professor I. M. LESLIE (Chair of the Environmental Sustainability Strategy Committee, Director of University Information Services and Fellow of Christ's College):

Deputy Vice-Chancellor, in my capacity as Chair of the Environmental Sustainability Strategy Committee, I commend this Report to the University.

In 2019, the University of Cambridge consumed £14.3m worth of electricity. With the expansion of the operational estate already under construction this is predicted to increase to approximately £21.2m by 2024. That is before consideration of a shift away from gas to electricity for space and water heating. In 2019, estimated emissions from our electricity consumption were approximately 30,000 tonnes CO₂e.¹

The University is committed to reducing emissions from fossil fuel consumption and has adopted a Science Based Target to reduce its energy-related (i.e. scope 1 and 2) carbon emissions to absolute zero by 2048, with an aspiration to become zero carbon by 2038. In order to achieve this, the University will need to shift from gas to electricity and ensure that our electricity supply is further decarbonised. Decarbonising our electricity supply will be achieved through the continued decarbonisation of the grid, increasing the proportion of electricity we purchase via Power Purchase Agreements tied to renewable sources, and generating our own renewable electricity.

The construction of a solar farm on University owned land at Lord's Bridge to supply University buildings at West Cambridge will play an important part in helping the University to meet these targets. The electricity demand of the West Cambridge site will only increase with the new buildings coming on-line and the electricity generated by the solar farm will reduce the requirement for this demand to be met from the national grid supply.

Having our own renewable generation would also provide protection against future electricity cost increases and would be a tangible demonstration of our determination to meet our targets.

Over the last ten years, a number of studies, masterplans, and strategy documents have been commissioned to investigate building, and estate-wide, energy consumption to gauge where renewable and low carbon energy technologies could be utilised. In 2015, a University commissioned report by AECOM, 'Investigation into Opportunities for Strategic Estate-wide Renewable and Low Carbon Energy at the University of Cambridge', deemed solar farms as being the most appropriate. Solar farms provide an economy of scale advantage over building-by-building or site-by-site arrays of panels. Since this report, a significant number of solar farms have been, and are being, developed in this region, mainly as they are seen as being a 'friendlier neighbour' than some other large-scale renewables.

Following an assessment of the University's rural estate, Lord's Bridge was considered the most appropriate location for a University owned solar farm. There is potential to provide the equivalent of over 15% of the University's 2019 electricity demand. If this project is successful, it may be feasible to develop solar farms on other University owned land.

Surveys will be completed before the planning application submission at the site, looking at existing biodiversity, soil type and visual impact, to make sure that this remains the case with this project. There is very real potential to increase the biodiversity at the site through the development of meadow, or low intensity grazing, beneath the panels to replace the current agriculture use of parts of the site.

Three different options for delivering power to the University from a solar farm at Lord's Bridge have been considered. The first two were (i) simply exporting the power to the public grid, or (ii) 'sleeving' the power across the public grid from Lord's Bridge to West Cambridge. There were two particular difficulties with these options:

1. the possibility that the University would lose 'ownership' of the carbon savings if third party suppliers or users were involved, and thus it would not, in accounting terms, contribute towards the University's zero-carbon reduction objectives;
2. the financial return would be affected by the additional costs of having to replace the UKPN substation at Lord's Bridge to accommodate the amount of electricity exported from the solar farm;

The third option is to install our own infrastructure to carry the power from Lord's Bridge to West Cambridge. This is the option that has been pursued for the development of the current business case.

A detailed technical and financial assessment of the feasibility of developing Lord's Bridge for a University owned solar farm to supply West Cambridge via a private wire has been made. The results of this have been presented to the Finance Committee who have recommended that this First Stage Grace be submitted by Council in advance of the submission of a detailed planning application to the Local Planning Authority.

If the Grace is approved and planning permission subsequently granted, the opportunity to construct, and potentially operate and manage the scheme on the University's behalf will be tendered. An earlier investigation into tendering concluded that planning permission was the greatest risk; without planning permission suppliers would be reluctant to put the effort into developing a full case – that is why we are seeking to eliminate planning risk prior to going to the market. Before entering into a contract, an analysis of the bids will be presented to the Finance Committee. This will provide further scrutiny of the business plan assumptions. If the preferred option requires bond funding, it will also need to be demonstrated that the business plan meets the eligibility criteria for utilisation of the bond.
