14 March 2022
The Vice-Chancellor reminds members of the University that a Congregation will be held on Wednesday, 22 June 2022 at 2.45 p.m., at which the Chancellor expects both to celebrate and confer Honorary Degrees. The eight degrees to be formally celebrated are those which were to have been conferred in June 2020 and were exceptionally conferred in absence in May 2021, following the cancellation of the 2021 Congregation (see Graces 1–8 of 22 May 2021, Reporter, 6618, 2020–21, p. 664). The two degrees to be conferred will be those now submitted for approval by the Regent House (see Graces 1–2, p. 321). Admission to the Congregation will be by ticket and details of the arrangements including application for tickets are expected to be published in the Reporter on Wednesday, 27 April 2022.

Office of Vice-Chancellor: Update
Further to the Council’s Notice of 21 January (Reporter, 6644, 2021–22, p. 224), the Advisory Committee wishes to express its thanks to all those who participated in the open consultation about the strategic priorities for, and attributes of, the next Vice-Chancellor. The consultation comprised three well-attended town hall meetings conducted online, on 31 January, 1 February and 3 February 2022, and an online survey that elicited more than 5,000 staff and student responses. The Advisory Committee is taking account of the views expressed in the drafting of the Further Particulars, a link to the final version of which will be published in the Reporter for the information of the University, following submission for approval by the Council at its meeting on 21 March.

The Advisory Committee also wishes to report that, following a rigorous tender process, Perrett Laver, a leading international search firm, has been appointed to assist in the search process.

NOTICES BY THE GENERAL BOARD

Reassignment of the El-Erian Professorship of Behavioural Economics and Policy, and related changes

11 March 2022

The General Board supports the proposal, put forward by the Council of the School of the Humanities and Social Sciences, to reassign the El-Erian Professorship of Behavioural Economics and Policy, currently in the Department of Politics and International Studies, to the Cambridge Judge Business School (CJBS) in the School of Technology. The El-Erian Fund for Economics and Policy, which supports the Professorship, would also be transferred to the Cambridge Judge Business School. The Fund also supports the El-Erian Institute of Human Behaviour and Economic Policy, a Fellowship at Queens’ College and studentships.

The Councils of the Schools and the Faculty Board of Business and Management support the changes, as they agree that the CJBS provides the best fit for the Professorship and the Centre, following the first recruitment to the Professorship. Professor Lucia Reisch, the current holder of the Professorship, approves of the reassignment of the Professorship and the President of Queens’ College also endorses the changes. The staff member currently supported by the Fund has been consulted and will also transfer to CJBS; the Doctoral students have been offered the opportunity to decide whether to remain with their current Degree Committee or to transfer with the Professor.

The Council is submitting Graces to reassign the Professorship to the Cambridge Judge Business School and to amend the regulations for the Fund to reflect the changes to the governance arrangements (Graces 1 and 2, p. 320).
